

Triad Art Program ❖ Annual Giving

Our school has been blessed with the opportunity to grow! In 2018, Triad School was accepted as a cultural nonprofit with the Oregon Cultural Trust. Donations made to the Triad Art Program will qualify for the donation match with the Trust and will give you great tax benefits. The matching gift you donate to the Oregon Cultural Trust will be given back to you as an Oregon tax credit. Every tax payer will enjoy this tax credit regardless of level of income. Even better, you can list both donations as charitable contributions on your Federal Tax Return giving you even more savings at tax time.

When you donate to the Triad Art Program, you are helping to preserve art and culture for our students and our community. Donations provide the necessary funding to continue our theatre, music, and visual arts programs and will make it possible to expand our art and culture class offerings in the future.

With a strong art program comes strong academic and athletic programs, too. Our students excel when exposed to a well-balanced education in a Christ-centered environment.

Oregon Cultural Trust ❖ Annual Match

This is where it really gets fun! Your matching gift to the Oregon Cultural Trust comes back to you as an Oregon tax credit. You are doubling your impact on art and culture in Oregon for free!

Oregonians fund the Oregon Cultural Trust. The Trust, in turn, funds the artists and culture that make Oregon unique. Since 2003, the Trust has dispersed funds over $18 million via their cultural nonprofits, their county/tribal Coalitions and their Statewide Partners. Supporting Oregon culture is good for our economy by creating tourism destinations that support local business development. Over 500,000 young Oregonians are impacted each year by cultural programs funded via the Trust. In past years, the Klamath County Cultural Coalition has awarded art education grants to Triad School. The Oregon Cultural Trust enriches the life of all Oregonians by increasing access to cultural activities across the state—library and museum programs, student internships, concerts and dance, educational outreach, preservation projects, summer camps, and more.

On the financial side, it's a win-win: Any Oregonian who donates to the Trust and to Triad School's Art Program gets both a tax write off AND a tax credit! Just another way Oregon is unique.

Investment in the Trust provides security that future generations will have access to the rich cultural experiences we enjoy today.
